

You're invited to our Author Celebration!

When: Friday, December 16th

Time: 10:15 am

Where: Our Classroom

We've learned a lot about Mo Willems' Pigeon books. We are working really hard to write our own stories about the Pigeon. We'd love for you to come and listen to us read our stories!

Can't make it? We are going to try to "live stream" the readings! More information will be coming home soon!
